Conditional Sentences

Type 2

Form:

If + past simple would / could + infinitive

Use:

- Hypothetical or improbable situations.

  If you lost your iPhone, what would you do?

- Advice

  If I were you, I wouldn't spend so much money on clothes.

Exercises:

A- Choose the verbs to complete the sentences.

get	celebrate	have	be
know	accompany	pass	go
speak	invite	feel	call

1. If I ____________ lonely, I ____________ my friends over.
2. He ____________ angry if he ____________ you had lied.
3. If I ____________ to the cinema, ____________you ____________ me?
4. If he ____________ the exam, he ____________.
5. If she ____________ English, she ____________ that job.
6. I ____________ her if I ____________ her phone number.

B- Complete the following sentences.

1. If I were rich, ______________________________
2. If I were Prime minister, ______________________________
3. If I had a yacht, ______________________________
4. If I had two lives, ______________________________
5. If I met my idol, ______________________________
6. If I found a treasure map, ______________________________

Answer key

A

1. felt / would invite

2. went / would be / knew
3. went / would… accompany
4. passed / would celebrate
5. spoke / would get
6. would call / had

B (suggestion)

1. …. Would make a trip around the world.
2. … I would implement employment policies.
3. … I would sail to America.
4. … I would do everything differently the second time.
5. I would ask for his autograph.
6. I would try to find the treasure.

1.